- The Board of Directors of the Association shall be ten (10) members:
  - a president,
  - a vice-president,

- a secretary,
  - a treasurer, and
  - six directors-at-large
- It is recommended that the Board of Directors consist of at least one official, one race director, one club president, one junior parent, three athletes of varying abilities and ages, and two additional members

Section 2 — Powers and Duties

The Board of Directors shall supervise, delegate, or perform the duties usually pertaining to their respective offices and other duties as set forth below and in the Association Policy Manual, including:

- Maintain the race kit and any other property owned by the Association
- Compile and publish, a racing schedule or calendar for racing; coordinate and arbitrate requests from members to place a race on the calendar
- Adopt Policy for the use of Association property and the conduct of racing in the Association's territory.
- Propose a budget to the Club Council
- Propose the amount of dues to the Club Council
- Propose the amount of a surcharge, if any, to the Club Council
- Publish and distribute a newsletter to the individual members
- Maintain a web site for the Association
- Maintain a Policy Manual that will include all other policies and procedures of the Association
- In conjunction with a cross section of the membership, conduct an annual review of the Executive Director or other Association staff.

Section 3 — Meetings

The Board of Directors shall meet a minimum of eight times per year as directed by the President. Special meetings of the Board shall be held when called by the President, or upon written or oral requests of at least two members of the Board.

- The Board of Directors may conduct business in person, by email, by written correspondence (mail or fax), or by telephone. A vote taken by email, mail, telephone, or other remote access shall become the act of the Board of Directors upon the approval of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors. A written record will be kept of all transactions of the Board of Directors.
- Members of the Board of Directors may have no more than three (3) unexcused absences during one (1) calendar year. Failure to meet this attendance requirement may lead to dismissal from the Board. Any vacancy resulting from this action shall be handled in the manner set forth in Article IV (Board of Directors), Section 8 (Vacancies).

Section 4 — Quorum

- A quorum of the Board of Directors shall consist of a majority of its members.
- Any decision, proposal, or vote on items made at a meeting lacking a quorum must be ratified at a subsequent meeting where a quorum is present.

Section 5 — Election and Removal

- The Club Council may remove any Board of Directors member by a two-thirds votes cast
- The members of the Board of Directors shall elect officers from among their members at the first Board of Directors meeting after the annual meeting of the Club Council. Officers shall be elected by simple majority. The term of officers shall be one year (until the next election of officers). Should an officer resign more than two months prior to the annual meeting, the members of the Board of Directors shall elect a replacement to fill the remainder of the term
- Nominations for election to the Board of Directors are considered complete when the nominee has signed a nomination form that is also signed by a representative of a club in good standing OR by 5 individual members in good standing. A club in good standing or 5 members in good standing may nominate UP TO 4 people for positions on the BRAC Board of Directors

Section 6 — Term

Terms of office for the Board of Directors shall be two years. One half of the Board of Directors (five members) shall be elected annually by the Club Council at the annual meeting. In the event a position is vacated prior to the end of the director's term, the vacancy will be filled in the manner set forth in Article IV (BRAC Board of Directors), Section 8 (Vacancies). Terms of office for all Board of Directors members begin at the adjournment of the annual meeting where the director was elected and shall end when they die, resign, are removed, or their successors have been elected and assume office. There shall be no term limits imposed upon Board of Directors members.

Section 7 — Succession

In the event of disability, absence or withdrawal of the President, the title, duties, and obligations of the office shall be assumed by the Vice-President.

Section 8 — Vacancies

In the event that a vacancy occurs in the Board of Directors, a replacement will be elected by a majority of those remaining members of the Board, to serve out the original term of the original board member.

Article V

- Only the primary club listed on the event permit may claim surcharges for purposes of voting strength

Section 2 — Meetings

The Annual Meeting of the Club Council shall be held at the time and place designated by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Club Council shall be held when called by the President or upon written request of ten (10) Club Council members.

Section 3 — Powers and Duties

The Club Council has the power to:

- elect the Board of Directors,
- adopt the budget,
- approve fees, dues and surcharges,
- amend the bylaws, and
- recommend policies of the Association.

Section 4 — Quorum

A quorum of the Club Council shall consist of ten percent of the total eligible votes. Proxy voting will be allowed under procedures established and/or approved by the Board of Directors. Absentee voting will not be allowed.

A majority of votes of the Club Council at a meeting in which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Club Council except when a larger number is specifically required.

Article VII

Amendments

Section 1 — How Amended

These bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the Club Council at any special or regular meeting called for that purpose, provided that a written notice shall have been sent to each member club at least 14 days before a regular meeting and at least five days before a special meeting. The notice shall include the language of any proposed amendments(s). Only such changes specified in the notice may be made.

Article VIII

Association Staff

Section 1 — Assignment

The Board of Directors may hire an Executive Director and/or other staff to manage the day-to-day operations of the Association. The Board of Directors may assign financial and operational management of the Association to the Executive Director and/or other staff. The Board of Directors will decide the financial compensation of the Executive Director and other Association Staff.
